Responsive Call to Worship

Leader: There is no distinction between us

People: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

Leader: Yet God's grace meets us here,

People: freely given through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

Leader: Come, let us worship the God who justifies the sinner,

People: who demonstrates righteousness through faith for all who believe.

Leader: Let us gather in humility and hope,

All: for it is by grace we stand, and by grace we are made new. Let us worship the Lord!

Hymn “Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise” #33

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,

We confess that we, like all before us, have fallen short of your glory.

We have trusted in our own righteousness rather than yours; we have boasted in what we have done, rather than in what Christ has done for us.

There is no one righteous, not one — and we count ourselves among those who have wandered from your way.

We confess the sins we carry openly and the ones we hide even from ourselves: our pride, our indifference to the suffering of others, our failure to love our neighbor as we love ourselves, our silence in the face of injustice.

And yet, O God, we come not in despair but in hope, for you have shown us another way — a righteousness that comes not through the law, but through faith in Jesus Christ, freely given as a gift of grace to all who believe.

Forgive us, Lord.

Justify us, not because of any merit of our own, but because of your abundant mercy revealed in the cross.

Make us new.

Restore in us the confidence that comes not from what we have earned, but from what you have already accomplished through the faithfulness of Jesus Christ.
We ask this in his name. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
