Responsive Call to Worship (Based on Daniel 1)

Leader: People of God, come and gather.

All: We come to worship the One who is faithful in every place.

Leader: In a world that urges us to conform, God strengthens us to stand firm.

All: Like Daniel and his companions, we seek courage to remain faithful.

Leader: God nourishes His people—not only with food, but with truth and wisdom.

All: We trust the God who sustains us and shapes our hearts.

Leader: Even in unfamiliar or challenging places, God is present and at work.

All: We lift our voices to the God who guides us and makes us steadfast.

Leader: Come, let us worship the Lord.

All: With grateful hearts, we worship our faithful God.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Holy God, We confess that, like Daniel, we often find ourselves in places where the values of the world press hard against our faith. Too often, instead of standing firm, we bend. We choose comfort over conviction, approval over obedience, and compromise over courage.

Forgive us for the moments when we forget who we are and whose we are. Forgive us when we fail to trust that You sustain us even when faithfulness feels costly. Renew our minds, strengthen our resolve, and restore in us a spirit willing to honor You in every circumstance.

Grant us the wisdom You gave Your servants in Babylon, that we may discern what is right, and the courage to pursue it with joy. In Your mercy, make us faithful.

Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
